Important Information About the Certified Fund Specialist® (CFS®) Designation: A Certified Fund Specialist® learns criteria such as alpha, beta, correlation coefficient, first-auto correlation, R-squared and standard deviation that should be incorporated in the selection process. With mutual funds training, a Certified Fund Specialist® can evaluate and compare financial measurements and benchmarks when constructing a portfolio. Candidates of the CFS® program must meet one of the following requirements: (1) a bachelor's degree or (2) one year of financial services work experience. In addition, CFS® candidates must complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years.

Important Information About the Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor™, CRPC™ Designation: The CRPC™ program is issued by the College for Financial Planning and focuses on a course of study encompassing pre- and post-retirement needs and issues related to asset management and estate planning. Although the CRPC™ program requires no prerequisites, Candidates must complete a final designation exam that is online, closed-book and proctored. Additionally, Candidates must complete 16 hours of continuing education every two years.

Important Information About the CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER® (CFP®) Designation: Those with the CFP® certification have demonstrated competency in all areas of finance related to financial planning. Candidates for the CFP® mark must pass a certification exam administered by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. that focuses on more than 100 topics of concern to the financial planning field. In addition to passing the CFP® exam, candidates must also complete qualifying work experience and agree to the CFP Board's Standards and Policies, which include CFP® Certification Requirements, Code of Ethics and Standards of Conduct, Fitness Standards for Candidates and Professionals Eligible for Reinstatement, Procedural Rules, Guide to Use of the CFP® Certification Marks, and Privacy Policy. Finally, certified CFP® professionals must complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years. Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. owns the marks CFP® certification and CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER® certification in the U.S., which it awards to individuals who successfully complete CFP Board's initial and ongoing certification requirements.
