Important Information About the Chartered Mutual Fund Counselor™, CMFC™ Designation: The CMFC™ provides candidates with a thorough knowledge of mutual funds and their various uses as investment vehicles. The case studies used throughout the course—presenting client scenarios and pointing out opportunities for candidates to make the most of these popular investments—provide insight into effective use of these investment vehicles. There is no prerequisite or experience required for this designation. Candidates must pass a final designation exam which is online, closed-book and proctored. In addition, a Chartered Mutual Fund Counselor™ must complete 16 hours of continuing education every two years.

Important Information About the Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor™, CRPC™ Designation: The CRPC™ program is issued by the College for Financial Planning and focuses on a course of study encompassing pre- and post-retirement needs and issues related to asset management and estate planning. Although the CRPC™ program requires no prerequisites, Candidates must complete a final designation exam that is online, closed-book and proctored. Additionally, Candidates must complete 16 hours of continuing education every two years.

Important Information About the Chartered Financial Analyst® (CFA®) Designation: The CFA® designation is highly revered in the investment management field and those who have the credential are expected to have an in-depth knowledge of the investment industry, with many going on to careers as portfolio managers or research analysts at hedge funds and private equity firms. Obtaining the qualification requires a self-study program, which takes several years to complete, and participants must pass three six-hour exams, as well as agree to abide by a strict code of ethics and standards of conduct. The candidate must also meet one of the following requirements: undergraduate degree and four years of professional experience involving investment decision-making, or four years of qualified work experience (full time, but not necessarily investment related).
