Important Information About the CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER® (CFP®) Designation: Those with the CFP® certification have demonstrated competency in all areas of finance related to financial planning. Candidates for the CFP® mark must pass a certification exam administered by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. that focuses on more than 100 topics of concern to the financial planning field. In addition to passing the CFP® exam, candidates must also complete qualifying work experience and agree to the CFP Board's Standards and Policies, which include CFP® Certification Requirements, Code of Ethics and Standards of Conduct, Fitness Standards for Candidates and Professionals Eligible for Reinstatement, Procedural Rules, Guide to Use of the CFP® Certification Marks, and Privacy Policy. Finally, certified CFP® professionals must complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years. Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. owns the marks CFP® certification and CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER® certification in the U.S., which it awards to individuals who successfully complete CFP Board's initial and ongoing certification requirements.

Important Information About the Chartered Retirement Plans Specialist™, CRPS™ Designation: The CRPS™ designation provides the advisor with the unique skills needed to implement and oversee internal retirement plans. As retirement plan options evolve and tax complexities increase, many companies seek professional plan administrators to design, install, and maintain their company retirement plans. There is no prerequisite/experience required to obtain the CRPS™ designation. Candidates must pass a final designation exam which is online, closed-book and proctored. In addition, the candidate must complete 16 hours of continuing education every two years.

Important Information About the Retirement Income Certified Professional® (RICP®) Designation: The RICP® program is designed to provide education to the next generation of retirement income planning experts. Retirement income planning places the focus on transitioning from asset accumulation to creating a sustainable livelihood for clients in retirement. Candidates must successfully complete 1) all three courses which includes extensive video lectures, expert interviews, practice exams, assessment questions, and professor-driven webinars. Each of the three courses concludes with a two-hour 100-question exam. 2) meet experience requirements, and 3) agree to comply with The American College Code of Ethics and Procedures. Additionally, the candidate is required to complete 30 hours of CE every two years, including at least one hour of ethics.
