Important Information About the CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER® (CFP®) Designation: Those with the CFP® certification have demonstrated competency in all areas of finance related to financial planning. Candidates for the CFP® mark must pass a certification exam administered by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. that focuses on more than 100 topics of concern to the financial planning field. In addition to passing the CFP® exam, candidates must also complete qualifying work experience and agree to the CFP Board's Standards and Policies, which include CFP® Certification Requirements, Code of Ethics and Standards of Conduct, Fitness Standards for Candidates and Professionals Eligible for Reinstatement, Procedural Rules, Guide to Use of the CFP® Certification Marks, and Privacy Policy. Finally, certified CFP® professionals must complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years. Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. owns the marks CFP® certification and CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER® certification in the U.S., which it awards to individuals who successfully complete CFP Board's initial and ongoing certification requirements.

Important Information About the Certified Private Wealth Advisor® (CPWA®) Designation: The Certified Private Wealth Advisor® program is designed to focus on the life cycle of wealth: accumulation, preservation, and distribution. Candidates must have a Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university or one of the following designations or licenses: CIMA®, CIMC®, CFA®, CFP®, ChFC®, or CPA license. The Candidate also has to undergo and pass a background check and have five years of experience in financial services or delivering services to high-net-worth clients. The candidate must submit an application; complete the pre-study educational component; attend a week-long in-class education program through either The University of Chicago Booth School of Business, an IMCA-sponsored class, or a firm-sponsored class; pass a comprehensive examination; and maintain the certification through continuing education and adherence to the IMCA Code of Professional Responsibility. In addition, CPWA® candidates must complete 40 hours of continuing education every two years.
