Important Information About the CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER® (CFP®) Designation: Those with the CFP® certification have demonstrated competency in all areas of finance related to financial planning. Candidates for the CFP® mark must pass a certification exam administered by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. that focuses on more than 100 topics of concern to the financial planning field. In addition to passing the CFP® exam, candidates must also complete qualifying work experience and agree to the CFP Board's Standards and Policies, which include CFP® Certification Requirements, Code of Ethics and Standards of Conduct, Fitness Standards for Candidates and Professionals Eligible for Reinstatement, Procedural Rules, Guide to Use of the CFP® Certification Marks, and Privacy Policy. Finally, certified CFP® professionals must complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years. Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. owns the marks CFP® certification and CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER® certification in the U.S., which it awards to individuals who successfully complete CFP Board's initial and ongoing certification requirements.

Important Information About the Chartered Special Needs Consultant® (ChSNC®) Designation: The Chartered Special Needs Consultant® (ChSNC®) designation prepares financial professionals to address issues important to those requiring special needs financial planning. The ChSNC® designation is made available through the American College of Financial Services and candidates must: (1) successfully complete the three required courses, (2) agree to comply with The American College Code of Ethics and Procedures, (3) have at least five years of professional experience in financial services or the practice of law (with a focus on income tax and/or estate planning), OR (4) have four years of relevant professional financial services experience and an undergraduate degree from a regionally accredited institution. Participation in the annual Professional Recertification Program is required to maintain the designation.
